Village to have laws organized

After a lengthy and sometimes heated discussion, the Village trustees apparently changed their minds and voted to proceed with the project of codifying the Village ordinances. Just two weeks ago, when a special committee appointed to look into hiring someone to do the job reported that they did not wish to pursue the matter until the Comprehensive Plan is completed, the trustees let the matter drop without further comment.

Trustee Mike Haley brought the idea back to life Monday night when he questioned Village Attorney Andrew Lynch about the Licensing Ordinance. From that topic, Haley asked more pointed questions about why Lynch had advised that codification be delayed.

After Lynch explained again that he thought that the professional planner and the ordinance codifier would be duplicating each other's work, Haley said that he didn't see why codification could not proceed in those areas not covered by what the planners are doing.

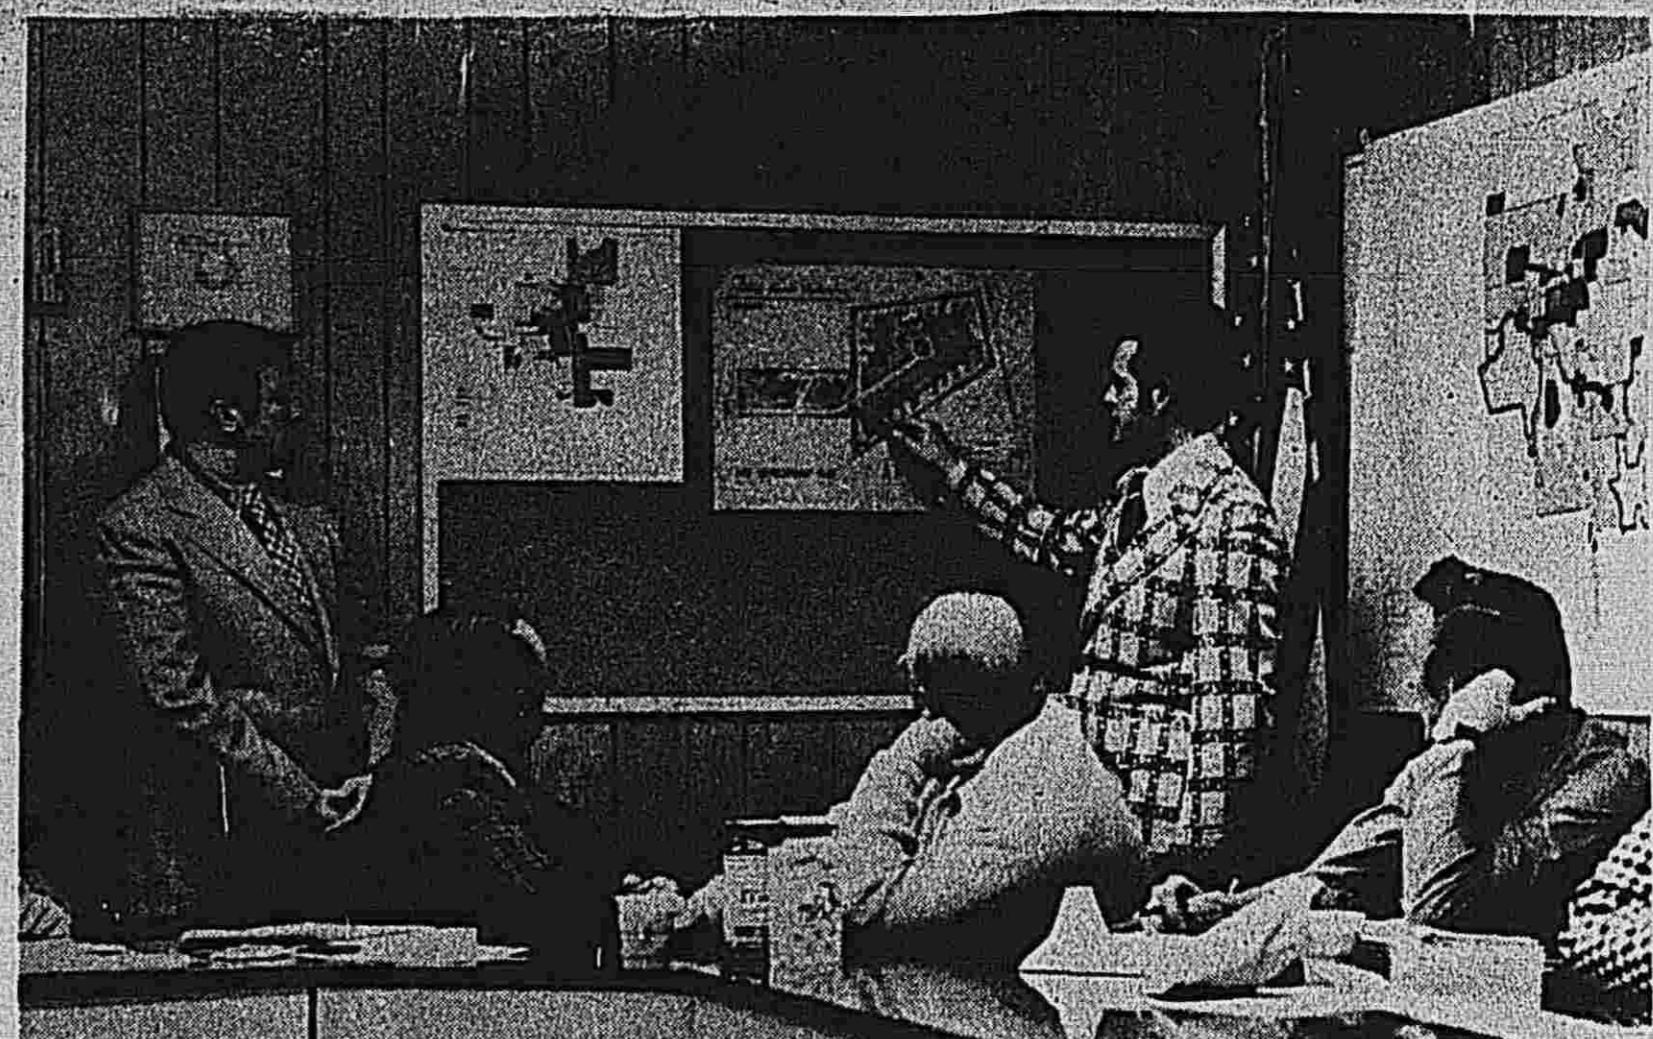

"I don't know if nobody else comes in to try to find an ordinance," Haley stated, pointing out the difficulty he has had trying to sort through the files of documents and Village Board minutes.

The discussion touched on whether the areas that the planner is working on could be left out of the ordinances to be codified, how much work would be left if this were done, and whether the Village Attorneys could do the work themselves. During the discussion, Lynch read the entire text of the contract submitted by the codification firm.

One of the features of the contract that seemed to catch the favor of the trustees was a five-year updating service. For an additional fee of $250 a year, the company would add any

EXPLAINS PROJECT TO PLANNERS. Plan Commission asked to re-consider Young zoning

The Antioch Zoning Board of Appeals, after a public hearing Tuesday, January 29, asked the members of the Planning Commission to re-evaluate their previous negative recommendation concerning multiple-family zoning for the Young property, located at and behind 701 Main. Zoning Board chairman Grant Spong cited additional evidence, in the form of architect's sketches, that was presented at the public hearing, in his letter to the Planning Commission.

Attorney Kenneth Clark and Architect Al Belli explained the sketches and suggested development of the four-acre site to the Planning Commission

Thursday night. After an extended presentation and many questions and answers, Commission chairman Bob Bemis said they would consider the matter and render a decision within the next few weeks.

Belli began his presentation with the statement that the "Key to multiple-family zoning is to allow open space." He said that he did not think that any other zoning would fit the wooded site north of the Village park better than multiple-family.

Though the owners of the property said that they are not working with any particular developer at this time, Belli explained that his drawings showed one possibility for development. His plan showed 51 units in six three-story buildings located primarily around the perimeter of the site. Each building was made up of from two to four of the three-story units in a staggered pattern. An access drive completely encircled the project, with a drive extending into the center also.

Belli said that his proposal was composed entirely of one and two-bedroom units, with a projected population of about 150. He said that rents might range from $200 to $245.

Questioning from the Commission members centered on the projected density for the site. It was pointed out that the zoning requested would permit up to 110 units to be built on the property. Belli stated that with the requirements of the Village building code, a conscientious developer could not fit more than 65 units onto the site.

Bruce Christensen, professional planner hired by the Village, took issue with Belli. "I don't see that multiple-family provides a transition between the park and a single-family area," Christensen said. "The best relationship, I think, would be a park and single-family."

Belli countered that single-tions turned in by the public. Many Antioch residents will remember Mrs. Watson for her 32 years of teaching in the Antioch Grade School systems. She has also been very active in community and church affairs, and at present is serving as President of the Antioch Women's Club. It is hoped that many of her former pupils will come to the dance to wish her well, and at the same time support St. Peter's Grade school, as all proceeds will go to the school.

Mark the date on your calendar - Saturday, March 30. More details and an autobiography will be in future issues of the paper.

This is the 6th annual affair, and former VIP's were: Jim McMillen, W.C. Petty, Wm. E. Brook, Rudy Eckert and Albert Dittman.

ANTIOCH SWIMMERS SWIM 431 1/2 MILES

It was a tiring but successful weekend for the 28 Antioch swimmers of the Waukegan YMCA Swim Team who swam in the annual Swim-A-Rama at the Waukegan YMCA. The swimmers began their trek at 6:00 p.m. on Friday, January 25 and within a 48 hour time period they planned to reach a goal of 409 miles. Their effort was tremendous and they surpassed their goal by 21 1/4 miles and reached 431 1/4 miles.

Most of the older swimmers stayed at the "Y" the entire 48 hour weekend, only breaking from swimming for a bite to eat or a short nap. Most of the young members came accompanied by their parents to join the older swimmers in the daytime. In the Swim-A-Rama there are to be swimmers in the pool at all times during the 48 hours.

A business or an individual could pledge any amount of money per mile for a specified amount of miles or could give a flat donation.

The purpose of this event was to raise money for the swimteam. The money is going towards 3 purposes - 1. swim team transportation to meets; 2. swim team expenses; 3. pool equipment.

The top boy swimmer was Chuck Auxier, age 13 with 30 1/4 miles. Running a close second was Jack Fields, age 13, with 30 miles. The top position for the girls was a tie between Eva Auxier, 14, with 20 miles and Margaret Bessette, 13, with 20 miles also.

The other 24 swimmers were as follows: John Schmidt, 10, 27 1/4; Mark Haley, 14, 25; Theodore Bessette, 11, 25;

LAST CHANCE TO DEFEAT STATE LOTTERY

Citizens of Illinois have one last-ditch chance to derail the State Lottery, which was railroaded through the State legislature in its final days last year as part of the RTA compromise.

Although the lottery itself was authorized, the State lawmakers are only now taking up the matter of approving funds to operate it. That bill is currently bottled up in a State Senate committee, giving citizens opposed to this "carrot on a stick" a chance to be heard.

We have three main reasons for believing that all honest citizens should speak out against the State lottery.

First of all, it will involve the State government in an entirely new bureaucratic operation. Unlike the licensing of Bingo, the State will actually administer the lottery. A television report last year on the Michigan lottery pointed out the size of the bureaucracy required there, housed in its own completely new, multi-story office building.

This large administrative cost will be expended to bring in revenue that could be had more simply through existing government channels merely by raising tax rates -- assuredly a politically less popular, but more honest, approach.

Besides the financial cost involved, we just don't think the State government belongs in this business, or any business.

Secondly, the State lottery will attract those least likely to afford the cost -- those who are easily misled by large scale advertising and those who are not aware of the odds against them. Those who stand to profit from the State lottery assert that participation in the lottery would be voluntary, but this is a misrepresentation. There will be wholesale enticement in almost every grocery store and perhaps every gas station in the State, where the tickets will be sold. Unlike betting at the racetrack, prospective lottery ticket buyers will not even have to go out of their way to be fleeced of their hard-earned money. They can give it away when they buy the family groceries.

In the eight States which have lotteries in operation, the average return to the bettor on each dollar wagered is about 40 to 45 cents, according to a recent Consumers Union study. Most other forms of legal or illegal gambling offer a payback of from 75 to 100 cents on each dollar wagered.

Finally, we feel that the State lottery is the coward's way out for raising State revenue. Many State legislators seem to think that it is a "painless" way to raise money. Yet it is merely a hidden cancer. Not only is it grossly unfair and misleading to certain segments of the population, it is an inequitable way to tax the people.

It is also -- like it or not -- a subtle danger to the moral tone of the State to have government directly

A TOUGH DECISION

The Judiciary Committee of the U.S. House of Representatives, upon which this Member serves, is facing its toughest decision in securing broad-ranging subpoena power to be exercised in the pending impeachment inquiry.

The unique Constitutional authority under which the House of Representatives is authorized to initiate impeachment proceedings has been subjected to very few valid interpretations. Only in the case of President Andrew Johnson has this constitutional prerogative been exercised with respect to the Office of President.

In its current "inquiry" to determine whether or not articles of impeachment should be lodged against President Nixon, the House Judiciary Committee has the benefit of the extensive Senate Watergate Committee hearings, together with evidence adduced before several House Committees, and testimony and documentary evidence available in various pending court proceedings.

It appears basic to the Judiciary Committee's subpoena function that neither the doctrine of executive privilege nor even the normal judicial processes should apply. In other words, the House of Representatives is fully capable of administering its own subpoena power -- and enforcing compliance with its demands for documentary or other evidentiary material.

While it is expected that the President and all of the House and Senate Committees, as well as court officials, will cooperate, there is an obvious unwillingness to subordinate the Congressional authority over impeachment to either the Executive or Judicial Branches. Indeed, the impeachment function has been exercised most frequently in the removal of Federal Judges and it would seem unthinkable that the Judiciary could in any way impede the exercise of the authority by which its own Members are subjected to impeachment.

In order to assure an objective and bipartisan exercise of the Judiciary Committee's subpoena power a resolution granting joint authority to the Democratic Chairman and the ranking Republican Member of the Committee has been proposed. Only in the case of disagreement of these Republican and Democratic leaders will the entire committee be called upon to authorize the issuance of specified subpoenas.

Whether the House action contemplates that the President of any present or former White House personnel will be summoned to appear before the House Judiciary Committee remains for future determination. For the present, the only intention is to require the production of documentary evidence. However, to deal fully and fairly with this awesome issue, no evidence however damaging or exonerating should be overlooked.

One more important point: The Committee's report is scheduled for April 30, 1974 -- at which time this unprecedented action should have been resolved in the U.S. House of Representatives.

Ask the Governor

Q. Many of us who registered our firearms in 1968 are considering not registering again before the deadline, as we believe we are not receiving benefits from the Firearm Registration Fund. Why doesn't the state develop gun ranges with this fund? -- Thomas Grueninger, Columbia.

A. Sixty percent of the $5 involved in the operation of a lottery.

Besides all of this, the $60 million that are expected from the Illinois lottery represents less than one percent of the total State budget.

What can you do? Since the funding bill is currently stopped in the State Senate, write to Senator Karl Berning, 625 Deerfield Rd. Deerfield, and tell him you don't like the idea of a State lottery.

When we talked with Senator Berning last November, he said he had opposed the lottery two years ago, but would vote for it now because he felt, "the majority of the people want it." Let him know that the majority do not.

Letters to State Representatives Don Deuster, Bill Murphy and Dan Pierce, asking their cooperation in sidetracking the measure, would be helpful, too.

The only ultimate winners of a State lottery would appear to be the two political parties, which stand to gain patronage, advertising and administrative contracts to award to friends, and an image of raising revenue without raising taxes.

In a State lottery, we are the losers.

Letters to the Editor on any current issues are welcome. Only letters with names can be considered for this column. Signatures will be withheld on request. Letters cannot be returned and are subject to minor editing.

Dear Mr. Rush:

I sincerely thank you for the fabulous press coverage you afforded our blood drive. I feel that St. Peters Blood Bank has established a solid donor basis now and I'm sure that I can attribute much of the success to your newspaper - in particular for the beautiful Editorial in the January 23 edition and your front page picture of January 30.

I felt all along, that the underlying clue to the success of this drive was, to get an understanding of the blood bank to the populous. The whole drive was a beautiful example of team work - from Father Johnson and his secretary, Betty Ledtke, and the Red Cross representatives and our publicity chairman, Marion Pechousek to the women who did the phone calling of parishioners. To Mary Barr and Cathy O'Conner who bussed themselves the week before scheduling 250 appointments. To Mr. Knill and the 8th grade boys who prepared the gym floor and the men of the parish who helped set up and dismantle the equipment on donation day. To the nurses of our parish and volunteer aides who worked diligently the day of the blood donating. Also - all those who came to donate blood that Saturday and the older people, who were unable to donate blood but talked to the younger parishioners about donating.

I know what a high respect your newspaper has earned in our wonderful community, Mr. Rush, and the fact that you gave our Blood Drive such high priority in your coverage during recent weeks has been most gratifying to us at St. Peters.

Thanks so much and God bless you.

Sincerely,
Mrs. JoAnne Aschbacher

registration fee you pay once every five years is deposited into the Department of Conservation's Game and Fish Fund. This fund is used to operate and maintain more than 300,000 acres of land for public hunting and to protect game in danger of extinction. To date more than $1.7 million have been deposited into this fund.

At this time the department feels that money is best spent developing resources-rather than building shooting ranges.

The department does train instructors to teach hunter safety courses in public schools. This includes classroom instruction and field training using the ranges of local sportsman clubs.

Forty percent of the fund covers the cost of administering the registration. This registration guards public safety.

I hope that you and your friends will agree that these fees do benefit you and that you do reregister before the deadline. The state law provides for penalties for those who do not comply.

TRAVELING WITH TAFFY JAPAN

When we arrived at the train station, it was very difficult to say our farewells. It is somewhat of a taboo in Japan to have physical contact in public. When saying goodbye, they bow to one another and are very casual. As we left Michi and Ayako, we hugged and kissed them goodbye. They understand American tradition and were very touched. We could see tears in Ayako's eyes. They told us that from now on they would be our Japanese parents. They explained that they had no children and that now we could be their "American girls." With this, we hesitantly said good-bye and promised to keep in touch with our new parents in Japan. This was a very touching experience that we will always remember. Hospitality, kindness, enthusiasm, friendliness, dignified, gracious. These are traits of the Japanese. You need never feel lonely in Japan.

Sights, Customs, Culture

My first cultural shock in Japan was the toilets. I needn't go into detail but they were much like a hole in the ground - squatting is inevitable! Also, toilet paper is a handy thing to carry in your purse! It was also hard for me to get used to the fact that in many places, men and women use the same washroom. In fact, I NEVER got accustomed to it and I lost a certain amount of my spirit for "women's lib" in the process.

While in Kyoto, we stayed in a ryokan. It was Japanese luxury to the utmost. Hot tea and gingersnaps awaited us in our room. Our meals were served in our room and we slept on mats on the floor. Shoes off in all places - that's a must. Shoes off, yokata's on. A yokata is somewhat of a casual kimono. Also, had we not learned to use chopsticks, we surely would have starved! Another treat was the hot Japanese bath. The bath tubs are extremely deep with steaming hot water. Very relaxing.

We visited many temples in Japan. The ancient carvings, arts, sculptures and the beautiful, dignified Buddha were overpowering. A quiet temple (most of them weren't) is the most satisfying and peaceful escape from the outside world. Yet you feel so surrounded by life and often go into instant-meditation. We visited quite a few temples on a national holiday so the temples were very busy. We never did find out what holiday it was since everyone we asked merely said, "No School!"

Many Japanese love to take pictures. As I walked out of a temple with a friend, we found ourselves surrounded by about 15 men taking our pictures. They started off quite a distance away but soon got quite brave and were right in front of us taking close-ups! We were so stunned, we didn't know what to do. Soon, we started taking pictures of them short stay in Japan.

Education is excellent. I talked to several college students and got into some interesting discussions, mostly comparing Japan to the U.S. We could find very few differences. The Japanese youth dresses more formally than the Americans, and women very rarely smoke. But other than physical appearances, almost every aspect of theory and meanings of life are very similar to ours.

As we sat informally with Japanese students we talked about everything from morals to religion, communication to athletics. We got on the subject of dying customs. A WCA student commented that he could see this in the Japanese youth, since they rarely wear kimono's or attend the ceremonies and almost never have such things done as shiatsu or acupuncture. The Japanese student replied, "Although Japan is highly modernized, our traditions will never die. Many times they are not apparent on the surface, but our customs are always present in the spirit. Spirit is the most important thing and we will never let our customs and traditions fade away."

Paul Dunlap retires

After more than 22 years of service as an agent, Lindenhurst resident Paul Dunlap retired recently from the Prudential Insurance Co. Since the beginning of his career, he had been associated with the company's Lake View district office, now located in Lincolnwood (6600 N. Lincoln Avenue).

Mr. Dunlap is a 1932 graduate of Crane Technical High School. A U.S. Navy veteran, he served in the New Guinea area during World War II.

For the past five years, he has been a member of the volunteer fire department of Newport Township.

Prior to entering the insurance field with Prudential, he was in the theater business for 18 years. For the last 10 years of that period, he was a theater manager.

Mr. Dunlap and his wife, Josephine, who live at 2422 Grand, are the parents of a son, Bruce, and a daughter, Sandra Lynne.

new ordinances over the next five years to the codified ordinances.

Lynch contended several times that "four or five areas" that, he said, he and his partner, Frank Rhode, could work on themselves, "would cover 80 percent of the problems."

After Haley had made a formal motion to authorize the mayor and clerk to sign the contract with the codification firm, Trustee Marge Nelson, chairman of the special committee looking into the matter, asked him why he was bringing the matter up after it had been temporarily set aside at the last meeting.

"To be perfectly honest, Marge, I don't think the committee appointed by the mayor did their job," Haley shot back. "They didn't even know what the contract said until it was read tonight."

After some further discussion engendered by that exchange, Mayor Robert Wilton suggested that Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz, who is in daily contact with the ordinances, might wish to comment. She stated that she did not care when it (codification) is done, "as long as it's done." She added that she would especially like the Licensing Ordinances updated before new licenses must be issued in April.

Attorney Lynch then hedged his recommendation, saying that it was "Up to the Board to decide," whether to proceed now and insert the planners recommendations later, or wait till the planner is completed and do it all at once.

When the vote was taken, Mrs. Nelson and Irv Walsh cast the only negative votes, the contract being approved 4-2.

In other business, the Board:

-authorized the creation of a No Parking zone on the south side of Depot St., where it makes the bend at Corona Avenue.

-approved two changes in the specifications for the treatment plant expansion project, with a net savings to the Village of $3,557.

-viewed a film and asked many questions about a four-foot wide snowplow, designed primarily for sidewalks and small areas. Cost of the "Bombardier" would be about $10,000.

-heard a report from Mike Warren that the Chamber committee on trees hopes to present a report within six weeks, and foresees Lake Street as a likely first area for tree planting.

-approved sign revisions for Las Vegas Restaurant, Homefinders Realtors, and Colleen's Gift Shop.

-received a suggestion from Dr. Robert Barnes that the Village participate in a blood bank program in Lake County. A committee was appointed, with Marge Nelson as chairman, to study the matter.

LaVerne and Joyce Woods just back from a vacation in Homestead, Florida with Lisa and Lindy looked tanned and rested. Sure did pick a bad time to come home though.

Jane Wierschem is also just back from the Florida Keys where she spent 2½ weeks on a diving excursion.

Our congrats to Porter Larson, Supervisor of Building and Transportation, who completed 25 years of service at the end of last year with the High School District.

Two of the happiest grandparents in town are Lee and Jean Mieure. Daughter Marcia gave birth to their first grandson last Saturday evening. I think Uncle Tim is bursting a few buttons also.

Rog Andrews was a pretty happy coach last weekend when his fighting Sequoits came up with a win to make this the 200th win of his coaching career. It was nice to see all the parents out - the Gutowski family even brought grandma (Bernie's Mom) along. It must have brought back lots of memories of when her own sons were playing for Antioch High too.

A speedy get-well to Mrs. Carrie Horan and also a belated birthday wish. Seems she celebrated on February 5.

Birthday wishes this week go to Herb Horton, Sr., and Cheryl Crawford on the 6th, to Gayle Bolton and Sunny Arndt on the 7th, and to Anne Borchardt who celebrates on the 9th. Congrats everybody, we hope you have a happy day.

Mrs Charles Taylor, owner of the Antioch Auction Barn will donate all the proceeds of this Thursday night's (February 7) auction to the Antioch Rescue Squad in memory of her late husband. Any donations of materials or participation would be appreciated.

family development of the Young property would be crowded and would present a danger from the nearby railroad tracks.

"The basic question at hand," Christensen continued, "is, does this re-zoning indicate proper planning for the area?" Pointing out that the surrounding area is already predominantly single-family, Christensen said that he was not in favor of any additional multiple-family projects on north Main.

After the discussion, Bemis announced that the Planning Commission would study the matter further before making any decision on whether to change their previous recommendation.

A very happy anniversary to Denny and Bobby Rowan who celebrate on the 11th.

The community was saddened by the death of one of its oldest members, Mr. Tim O'Connell, who passed away last Friday at Victory Memorial Hospital in Waukegan. He was a resident of Antioch since 1924 and had worked in Reeves Drug Store for the last 30 years. I'm sure everyone who knew him, loved him.

Hear tell the Chamber of Commerce is planning the 2nd Annual Art Fair for the early part of July. Get busy and make your plans for your booth.

Remember, this weekend the Antioch Wrestlers will compete in the NWSC Tournament held at the high school. This will be a close one and the wrestlers need all the support they can get. See ya there.

ANTIOCH STUDENTS PLACE FIRST IN CONTEST WITH COUNTY SCHOOLS

Students of the Distributive Education class at Antioch Community High School brought home four trophies from competition against five other Lake County schools, held at Lakehurst, January 30, in addition to the team trophy awarded for the highest total points won by all contestants.

Contests were held in five major areas: Job Interview, Sales Demonstration, Advertising, Display, and Public Speaking. The six - Waukegan, North Chicago, Zion, Deerfield, Highland Park, and Antioch - schools competing at Lakehurst comprise only part of the Area 14 in the State of Illinois. The remaining eight schools in the Area will compete in Schaumburg. Antioch has a chance to win the overall Area 14 trophy, if the school's 35 points remain the highest.

Individual winners from Antioch were: Tom Robinson - first in Job Interview, Larry Meyer - first in Display, Dave Ducommun - third in Sales, Bob Swanson - third in Display, Phyllis Oscarson - fourth in Job Interview.

Tom Robinson, president of the D.E. Club, said that the students learn the fundamentals of business, marketing, advertising, creation and evaluation of displays, and business organization in class. This knowledge is put to work "on-the-job" in area stores, banks, and other businesses.

Besides the class and job aspects of Distributive Education, Robinson said that the students sponsor post-game dances, an annual banquet, and a charitable Christmas project.

The students are now preparing for State competition, March 1, in Springfield.

PREMIERE OPENING SET AT PM&L

Exciting things are happening in Antioch this weekend. It is the premiere opening of the musical melodrama Lady Audley's Secret on Saturday evening, February 9 at the PM&L Theatre, 877 Main Street. Other show dates are February 15, 16, 22, and 23. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Director Ken Smouse is very pleased with his vivacious cast and says, "It's fun working with a production that has never been given in this area. With a new show there is no stereotyped idea of what has to be done with it. Lady Audley premiered at the Goodman Theatre not quite two years ago, and PM&L is the first amateur theatre organization in the entire Chicago area to give it."

From beginning to end, Lady Audley's Secret is a "fun" show. It's full of colorful Victorian costumes, melodic catchy tunes, comedy, intrigue, tragedy and despair, and of course a constant overtone of melodrama. But as in all melodramas, goodness wins in the end and evil is smitten down.

Members of the cast are: Dena Fabry from Lindenhurst, the lovely Lady Audley; Rita Shield from Fox Lake, the haughty Alicia Audley; Tessa Smith from Russell, the maid Phoebe; Bob Bundy from Fox Lake, the aging Sir Michael Audley; Lou Jones from Round Lake Beach, the stalwart Captain Robert Audley; Don Beveroth from Paddock Lake, Wis., the "no-good" Luke; Tom Hausman from Lake Villa.

George Talboys; Lyn Zaehler and Bill Sershon from Antioch as the maid and the butler.

Chorus members are Dee and Bill Baum, Ricky and Hank Apostol, Jacque Vogt, Becky Montooth, Nancy Mancuso, Tim Shield, and George Blanksten. Eva Harper from Lake Villa is musical director. Lyn Zaehler is choreographer. Tracy Teltz from Lake Villa and David Rush from Antioch make up the musical combo of piano and drums.

The production crew can "make or break" a show and Lady Audley's Secret is especially active. Susan Allen from Fox Lake leads the group as stage manager. Gus Mancuso and Todd Seisser are her stage hands. Cast and director constructed the set and decor. Carol Becker and Pat Understall are in charge of props. Elaborate costuming was done by Kathy Hausman, Ricky Apostol, Aileen Biel, Deane Jones, and Delores Kratz with a helping hand by "Mrs. Fashion" herself, Mrs. James McMillen. Richard Elliston and Shirley Bunker handle lighting and Jeff Smouse does special effects. Publicity was done by Betty Smouse and George Blanksten with posters by Hank Apostol.

For reservations, and do make your reservations NOW to be assured of a seat on your favorite night, call 395-9702. Bring the entire family, form a dinner party, grab a friend—but be sure to come to find out LADY AUDLEY'S SECRET.

American Legion Auxiliary

Allan F. Cassidy of Libertyville, a noted lecturer on the life of Abraham Lincoln, will be the featured speaker at the February 13th meeting of the 10th District American Legion Auxiliary, to be held at the Homer Dahringer American Legion Home in Waukegan, at 8:00 p.m. Cassidy, an attorney who has studied and done a great deal of research on the life and times of Lincoln, will also bring some of his collection of momentos and relics of this span of history for his audience to view.

At the January 29th district board meeting held in the Grayslake American Legion Home, Mrs. Norman Holt, North Chicago, 10th District President, appointed Mrs. Philip Strand of Libertyville, as chairman of the district nominating committee. Mrs. Carson Neville, Grayslake, and Mrs. Joseph Hogue, Waukegan No. 281, were the two members elected from the board to serve on this committee. The remaining two members will be elected from the floor at this February 13th district session. This five member committee presents the officer's slate in April, with election taking place in June.

The 10th District Juniors and Mrs. Holt have been highly honored as they have been requested to provide the entertainment program at the State Patriotic Conference, on March 21st, at the Pick Congress Hotel in Chicago. The Juniors will present a medley of patriotic songs, directed by Mrs. Holt. Adding to this honor will be the distinguished presence of the National President, Mrs. B.M. Jarrett of Charlotte, North Carolina, who will give the keynote address. This will occur on the day-long agenda after the mid-day banquet. Susan Rathmann, Antioch, the district junior president, urges all Juniors to be sure to attend all vocal practices.

Mrs. Holt just returned recently from a flying trip to Bismarck, North Dakota, where she attended the National Midwestern Area "D" Veteran's and Rehabilitation Conference, held at the Holiday Inn, January 22-24th. Immediately following this conference was the national conference for children and youth, but other commitments prevented Mrs. Holt from also staying for this seminar. The national veteran's affairs and rehabilitation conference was "chaired" by Mrs. Firman Henricks of Cerro Gordo, a past state president of Illinois. Mrs. Holt served as state sergeant-at-arms when Mrs. Henricks was state president two years ago. Most of the members in attendance at these national seminars are national and department officers and chairmen, although the meetings are open to all members. Mrs. Holt reported that she had heard many fine speakers, and gained much useful information regarding the rehabilitation situation of veterans and others.

Noel White of Fox Lake, who has been a member of the American Legion's national rehabilitation committee for many years, was also present. Department President Mrs. William J. Stringer of Oak Park, Illinois, was still another high dignitary present. Before her departure for home, Mrs. Holt did manage to hear three of the speakers of the national children and youth seminar. They were Greg Gallahan, North Dakota's 1973 senator for Boys' Nation; their state oratorical winner, Miss Lyla Safely, a college freshman; and Michael Mahoney of Chicago, Midwestern Regional Director of the National Council of Crime and Delinquency - all talks impressing her deeply.

Mrs. James Raihle, Round Lake, district junior activities chairman, reminds all 10th District Juniors that there will be a roller skating party at the Park Roller Rink in Zion, February 10th, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. All Antioch Juniors wishing to go should contact Mrs. Bernard De Vries as soon as possible.

TOP HOMEBUILDERS. After the recent mini-school project at the Upper Grade School on designing homes, teacher Robert Lipinski took the designs to the Antioch Lumber Co. for evaluation. PURPLE PEOPLE EXPERIMENT A SUCCESS

Now that the Purple People experiment is over, at the Upper Grade School, school officials announced that students who participated said they felt it was a meaningful experience.

For two days, the students revealed in essays on the project, they felt deep down inside what it was like to be a part of a visible minority. Life was difficult at times for them, the student's said. It had to be, teachers involved added, to create an atmosphere conducive to the learning of the word prejudice.

In order to get a measure of student reaction, students wrote down their feelings as soon as they had completed the experiment. The following are representative excerpts from some of the papers received.

Well, I think everyone learned something about prejudice and discrimination. Well, I know I did. I'll never call a black person a nigger because all they are is the same as us with darker skin.

All the time I did not like it (the experiment) but now I know what the word prejudice means.

Sometimes you feel so bad that you wanted to rip up your sign and forget the whole dumb thing. But before you rip it you had to think that the black people can't just rip off their skin and forget it, they have to live with it all their lives.

... (now) I know what it's like. He (black man) is no different from us, he puts his pants on the same way we do.

... I think everyone should go through this experiment so they really feel like blacks do ...

To evaluate the project itself, the teachers gave each student a questionnaire about the Purple experiment. The following are the responses:

Of those seventh graders who participated in the experiment, in response to "I believe that this was a worthwhile experience for me personally", 100 percent say yes.

His Eagle project consisted of making and distributing collection boxes for old eyeglasses which were then sent to "The Eyes for the Needy" for use in foreign lands.

Graham Bury is the tenth scout from Troop 92 to earn the Eagle Award during the troop's 24 year existence. Eight of the scouts achieved their awards under the guidance of Norman Edwards, the present Scoutmaster.

Graham will receive his Eagle Badge at a spring Court of Honor.

"Through projects like this and others, perhaps perhaps in the future the word prejudice will be used only in the past tense," said Principal Bill Herbst.

ABC'S OF TRAVEL

Barb Corbin

TRAVELING WITH A PET CAN BE FUN IF YOU KNOW HOW

Knowing all about the medical requirements and getting needed health certificates to travel easily from country to country is clearly outlined in a new book "Travel With Your Pet." You will also find out about plane and ship accommodations as well as what hotels, motels and campgrounds will accept him. There are also some other helpful, unusual bits of information such as: in Amsterdam you can buy special food for dogs with bad digestion, in the Vienna Woods your pet can run free, and the Lido del Nazione has a beach exclusively for dogs with umbrellas, beach balls, bones and an attendant with pail and shovel. Also in our French Quarter of New Orleans there are babysitters for the pets while you go out on the town. The book costs $7.95 and is published by Simon and Schuster, 630 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10020. It has all the answers such as "Should Pets Travel By Air", etc. There are thousands of pets that travel with the families annually but some critics say the airlines mislead the public as to treatment they will receive - that it's really (mis) treatment. A lot of the problems are the results of the owners themselves not knowing how to go about it. Also some of the airlines provide a book called "Guide to Pet Travel" which I recommend 100 percent. If you can't get one through your local veterinarian then ask your local travel agency and he can be of great help to you and your pet. Advance arrangements must be made with the airlines, hotels-motels, etc., so they can be better prepared to handle the pet. To sum it up, a little planning and some common sense can make it a great family vacation or trip.

Social Notes

By Del Jahneke

You will "Swing Into Spring" when you come to the fashion show, card and bunco party at the Grass Lake School on Sunday, March 10th, at 2:00 p.m. Mrs. Mary Ann Eichler, general chairman, says that the fashions shown will be furnished by the Four Squires and the Young Image shops of Antioch. Tickets will be on sale at the Grass Lake School, the Four Squires and the Young Image. Delicious refreshments will be served by the Grass Lake School P.T.O. More information will be forthcoming about this delightful affair in later issues, but be sure now to "circle" that date March 10th on your calendar - you wouldn't want to miss this event. Whoops, almost forgot to mention there will also be special entertainment, too!

Beautiful and exciting colored slides of the Grass Lake School Boy Scouts Troop's trip through the Ely, Minnesota region were shown by Lee Ipsen, their Scoutmaster, at the recent meeting of the Grass Lake School P.T.O. They told of their "roughing it" in canoes on the wild, "white horse" waters of the many streams and lakes, and showed the boys carrying their equipment and food on their many portages over rugged terrain, setting up camp in this wilderness area, etc. Although this trek was far from being an easy, leisurely tour, it will be an adventure these young men will cherish for many years.

Some twenty couples, members and friends of the Antioch Evangelical Free Church, met at the Alan Knutesen home for what they had hopefully thought would be their annual "snow party", but the weather (January 26th) changed their plans. Instead, they spent the evening playing volleyball and other table games at the A.E.F. Church, then returned to Bev and Alan's home for visiting and enjoying some mighty good and tasty "vittles"!

This Friday marked an important event in Antioch's basketball history. Friday, February 1, Antioch defeated Stevenson 82-59. Mike Gutowski was high scorer with 18 points. However, the victory itself marked a milestone in Coach Andrews career: it was his 200th victory as Antioch's basketball coach. Now he's heading for his next 200th. Hopefully with a win next week. A dance followed the game with music provided by "Savage Apples".

In girl's basketball this week, the news wasn't as good. Tuesday at Grayslake, the "A" team was defeated, dropping it from the ranks of undefeated teams although the "A" team lost, the "B" team was victorious. Thursday, at Crystal Lake, the "B" team was again but the "A" team met with its second loss. Next week will be the two remaining games of the girl's season. Thursday, February 14 is their last game, and they would appreciate it if they could have a large amount of spectators. The game will be against Zion, at Antioch in the girl's gym, at 4:30 p.m.

Thursday the Tom-Tom staff met to develop writing assignments for their next issue, and to pick a movie to see. The movie designated was "The Seven-Ups".

Last week several other clubs also met to prepare their schedules for the new year. Among them were Spanish club, yearbook staff, class executive boards and Color Guard.

Report cards were distributed on Monday, February 4.

CANCER SOCIETY REMINDS WOMEN OF PAP TEST LAW

Dr. Peter Vinciguerra, president of the Lake County Unit of the American Cancer Society reminds women that, if they are hospitalized for any reason, they will now be offered the opportunity of receiving a cancer-detecting Pap test.

The Illinois legislature recently enacted a law requiring hospitals to offer this test to every female in-patient, 20 years of age or over unless the test is medically contraindicated in the judgement of the attending physician or if it has been performed within the previous year, Dr. Vinciguerra said. Every woman has the right to refuse this test, he added, but should anticipate the offer and be able to make an appropriate response.

The American Cancer Society has estimated that approximately 800 cases of undetected cancer of the uterine cervix enter and leave hospitals in Illinois each year as women are admitted for other reasons.

The Society is currently developing an informational leaflet on this testing program. Copies of the leaflet may be obtained from the Lake County Unit office at 228 North Genesee, Waukegan.

PRODUCTION WITH PROTECTION

For the first time in many years our nation's farmers are being called upon as never before to produce food; and Lake County farmers are expected to put more of their land into crops. Also, they will farm present cropland more intensively according to Ron Gebhardt with the U.S. Soil Conservation Service.

But at the same time farmers need to be concerned about our environment. Soil which leaves our farmland goes into our marshes, lakes, streams, and rivers.

For help in planning or applying conservation on your land contact the Soil Conservation Service office at Lake Zurich.

THINGS YOU MAY NOT KNOW ABOUT CONSERVING ELECTRICITY.

Adjusting your thermostat— how it can waste or conserve energy.

These days, it's wise to know a few things about your thermostat. How you use it can save or waste precious energy and money.

Your thermostat works like this: When you set it at 68 degrees, it starts your heating system working. Once your home is warmed to 68 degrees, the system is automatically turned off. Insulation holds the heat inside your home as long as it can. Then when your home cools below 68 degrees, your thermostat starts the system reheating.

Frequently adjusting your thermostat makes your heating system work harder than it has to. And that costs you money—in repairs and higher bills. You'll save energy and money by setting your thermostat at 68 degrees and leaving it there. Another thing to remember: Every degree over 68 adds about three percent to your heating bill. If you keep your thermostat at 68 degrees instead of 72, you can save over 10% at the lower setting.

While frequently adjusting your thermostat wastes energy, an occasional adjustment will conserve energy. So it's a good idea to lower your thermostat at night and when you're away from home.

These principles apply essentially to all heating fuels—electricity, gas or oil. We have a booklet that covers heating as well as other areas where you can conserve energy. We'll send a copy of "101 Ways to Conserve Electricity at Home" to you free. Just write Commonwealth Edison, Department AV, P.O. Box 767, Chicago, Illinois 60690.

With A "Stern Eye"

January is generally the slowest month of a County Clerk's year. Everyone who wanted to get married, has already done so—over the Christmas holidays. Those who needed a birth certificate to enter Kindergarten, got them in September. And as every Lake Countian knows, our extending of taxes will have to wait for other matters to be settled. The frenzy of Voter registration which pyramids to a wild crescendo just before an Election, has not yet begun with regard to the March 19th Primary.

Outside of the myriad forms being printed for that election, and the lists of details to be completed and checked off, the biggest news of the period has been the preparation for the School for Election Judges which began on February 1st.

The problem of educating the nearly-1200 Election Judges who preside at Lake County elections has been an omnipresent one. Each Election brings new people into the precincts to work with many who have been doing the job for thirty years. The novices claim they are intimidated by the old pros and the experienced judges feel saddled with the ignorance of the newcomers. And none of that inter-personal relationship (very important when you spend 15 or 20 hours with four other people—it's like being stranded in a populated elevator) even touches the problem of procedures.

The Illinois Election Code is an unwieldy volume of contradictions and repetitions. Ideally every person to sit as an Election Judge would know the ins and outs of that book as well as Mike Howlett, but that is obviously an impractical goal so we do what we can in the time we have.

The only thing I ever did in my life B.C. (before Clerkdom) that prepared me for the position I now hold, was to be an Election Judge in Deerfield Township, Precincts 10 and 13. I at least knew, first hand, what those problems were. And they're legion!

In the days when I sat (we old pros say 'sat'), the Schools for Election Judges were very simple. The Clerk or his Deputy—or perhaps a representative of the Thorner Election Supply Co.—stood on an empty stage in a full auditorium and read the book of instructions. This comprised the delivery of information. The audience—anywhere from 200 to 400 mostly women—would ask questions of the speaker and quote from their own experiences. That dialogue was followed by a test put together by the Thorner people. If one didn't know an answer it was possible to open the instruction book and find it or raise a hand and ask it of the shadowy figures on the stage. And they would respond.

I don't know if anyone ever failed it—and if anyone did, I have no idea what happened then.

In 1972 when we put on our first Schools for Election Judges, we were determined to try something different. Instead of the auditorium full of dozing listeners, we used classrooms and divided our people up into groups of 25 or 30 to enact some of the situations which arise during an Election Day.

It was a lot more fun than the old way, but by the time we wound up the four Elections of that year we knew that the 'new way' had turned out little better than the old way. Our tally sheets and time sheets and records of Write-In votes were returned in general disorder and it was difficult to get a complete canvass (official vote totals) for several days.

The 1974 Election Judge Schools are giving us another opportunity and we have been planning them for months. In conjunction with a local studio, we have prepared a filmed program. The stars are two or three women from the Clerk's office, one bona fide Election judge, a man from the Treasurer's office and a reporter from the News Sun who happened to pass through the lobby during the filming.

The chief problem was to make it interesting. Let's face it—the subject matter has its limitations for romance. And yet it truly is an important function in the democratic process. The precinct polling place really is the cornerstone of our system of government.

I don't want to give away the end—and of course no one will be seated after the first five minutes, but we think the results are splendid and we are eagerly looking forward to the reaction and the long lines of interested spectators queuing up to get in.

Maybe if I tell them that every Election Judge will get an extra $10 in pay for attending the school—

7th GRADE CAGERS LOSE ONE - WIN ONE

The Antioch 7th grade cagers met with the Grayslake ball club on January 31. They got off to a good start with a 6-2 1st quarter, and were only down by 1 at the half, 15 to 14. They were still in contention until the closing minutes, but were not able to rally, and lost 39 to 27.

Oddsen and Lehn were high scorers with 14 and 6 points respectively.

Antioch was host to the Lake Zurich cagers on February 4, 1974. The Antioch team jumped off to a 9 to 2 first quarter but were outscored in the second quarter. Half time score was 11 to 8. The second half saw Antioch outscore Lake Zurich 16 to 12 to go on to win by 7 points. Final score was 27-20.

Oddsen and Korpjene were top scorers with 8 and Lehn followed with 5.

When Leif Ericson landed in America in A.D. 1000, he was so struck by the abundance of wild grapes that he called the land Vinland, "Wine land."

HOUSING STILL A BARGAIN

According to a recent survey of members of RELO Inter-City Relocation Service, the single-family home is one of the few bargains left in today's spiraling inflation.

Mike Warren of Michael Warren & Co., one of more than 625 RELO members serving 7,000 key residential areas in the U.S. and overseas, reported that "home prices, nationwide, increased only 2.05 percent over those of November, 1972, considerably less than consumer indices for other goods and services."

Warren said that the increase was one of a number of "positive indicators reported by RELO members in their first month survey for fiscal, 1974."

"Our November, 1973 survey indicates that the transferee market is going strong and that a service such as RELO, since it provides painless house-hunting assistance, can do well in any economy."

RELO members produced 51.8 percent more referrals in November, 1973, than a year earlier. Sales dollar volume increased by 11.68 percent during the same month, and members sold 9.43 percent more homes through the RELO referral network in November, 1973, than in November, 1972.

WRESTLING, BASKETBALL TOURNAMENTS SET

Antioch Community High School will be the scene of two wrestling tournaments in the next two weeks. February 8th and 9th the Sequoits will host the Northwest Suburban Conference Tournament. The opening session is Friday at 7:00 p.m. followed by semifinals at 1:00 p.m. and finals 7:00 p.m. on Saturday. Antioch's the defending Conference Champion. This year the conference title is based solely on team points earned in the tournament. Based on performances through the last weekend, five schools including Antioch have an opportunity to be named the winner this year.

The following week, February 15th and 16, the north gym will be the site of an Illinois High School Association District Tournament. The opening session again is 7:00 p.m., Friday, followed by semifinals at 1:00 p.m. and finals at 7:00 p.m., Saturday.

Teams competing are: McHenry, Crystal Lake, Grant, Woodstock, Round Lake, Wauconda, Cary Grove and Antioch. Winner advances to the Barrington Sectional the following week.

The I.H.S.A. Basketball Tournaments do not begin until the first week in March. Antioch is seeded number one in the McHenry Regional and will meet Woodstock on Tuesday, March 5th. If Antioch wins that game, they will go against the winner of the McHenry-Grant contest for the District Champsiphip and a place in the Rockford Sectional beginning March 12.

MATMAIDS. Antioch High School's new "Matmaids" help the wrestling program function smoothly by aiding with such chores as timing, scoring, pre-match problems, and spirit. VARSITY WRESTLERS WIN ONE, LOSE ONE

The Antioch wrestlers had their ups and downs this weekend. The up was against Stevenson Friday night where the score was 66-0, but the down came Saturday afternoon where the score was 30-12, Mundelein.

The unfortunate part about the Mundelein match was the score. Several Sequoits wrestled excellent matches against outstanding wrestlers but came up short in the scoring column. A questionable call on an illegal move at 105 resulted in the loss of the match or else the score would have been much closer.

This weekend the N.W.S.C. Tournament is at Antioch Friday and Saturday. This year there are five teams that are all contenders for the championship. Antioch, Grant, Grayslake, Woodstock, and Warren have all demonstrated that they have the ability to win the conference tournament. The team that pulls the upset victory and does not get any of its wrestlers upset will win a tournament that is this close.

Antioch hopes to have an advantage because the tournament will be wrestled here. The home crowd certainly has been an advantage in the past and, this year maybe it will be the winning edge for the Sequoits.

Following is the schedule of events for the Northwest Suburban Conference Tournament to be held at Antioch High School:

Friday - 7:00 p.m. Preliminaries;
Saturday - 1:00 p.m. Semifinals and wrestle backs;
Saturday - 7:00 p.m. Consolations and finals.

Soph Matmen to Round Lake Tourney

The Antioch High School Sophomore Wrestlers will compete in the Round Lake Tourney on Saturday, February 9, 1974. Schools entered will include sophomore teams from the Northwest Suburban Conference.

Tournament sessions are scheduled as follows: 9:00 a.m. Preliminaries; 12:00 Noon Semi-finals and Wrestle-backs; 2:00 p.m. Finals and Third-place.

This past weekend, the wrestling Sophomore Sequoits bombed Stevenson 60-6, and Mundelein 40-9. The wins left Antioch with 17 victories and 1 loss in dual meets so far this season. In the Stevenson match, the Sequoits ran nine pins in a row to break the old Sophomore record of eight pins in succession set against Rockford.

West High School in December, 1972. In the Mundelein match, the Sequoits won nine of twelve matches and dominated the Mustangs the entire afternoon.

Antioch's Sophomore Basketball Team defeated Stevenson last Friday by a score of 54 to 30. Antioch is now 8 and 0 in conference play and 13 and 5 for the season.

Jon Bodin led the scoring for Antioch with 16 points followed by Scott Kimball with 14, George Ferguson and Jeff Eder with 8 each, Tim Sheppard with 4, and Tom McAvoy and Mitch Witt with 2 each. Scott Kimball led the Sophs in the rebounding department with 16 rebounds for the evening.

The outcome of the game was never in doubt with Antioch jumping off to a quick lead. The Sophs led 13 to 4 at the end of the first quarter, 28 to 15 at the half and 42 to 21 at the end of the third quarter. Other players seeing action for the Antioch Sophs were Tom Gutowski, Bob Dubek, Dave Jordon, Bob Walsh, Dennis Varney, and Dave Lagerstrom.

Antioch travels to Warren this Friday with the Soph game starting at 6:45 p.m.

Antioch freshmen matmen, along with eleven other teams, took part in the Crown Invitational Wrestling tournament on February 2. The Sequoits placed ninth with 24½ points. First place went to defending tournament champions, Wheaton North High School. Coach Schweiss said he felt his team wrestled well against the other participating schools, all of whom are top competitors.

Individual honors went to the following: Bill Harlan, third place at 119 lbs; Art Dilger, third place at 167 lbs; Bob Ducato, third place at HWT. Wrestling especially well, Forrest Miller took the consolation bracket at 185 lbs.

To date the freshmen team record is 11-2. The next meet is scheduled for February 5 at 6:45 at Warren High School.

EVERY SEQUOIT SCORES AGAINST STEVENSON

Every member of the home team saw action and scored, as the Antioch Sequoits cagers turned in their eighth straight conference victory before a fine "Parents Night" crowd, beating Stevenson 89-52. It was an extreme pleasure to see all the parents of the players and cheerleaders.

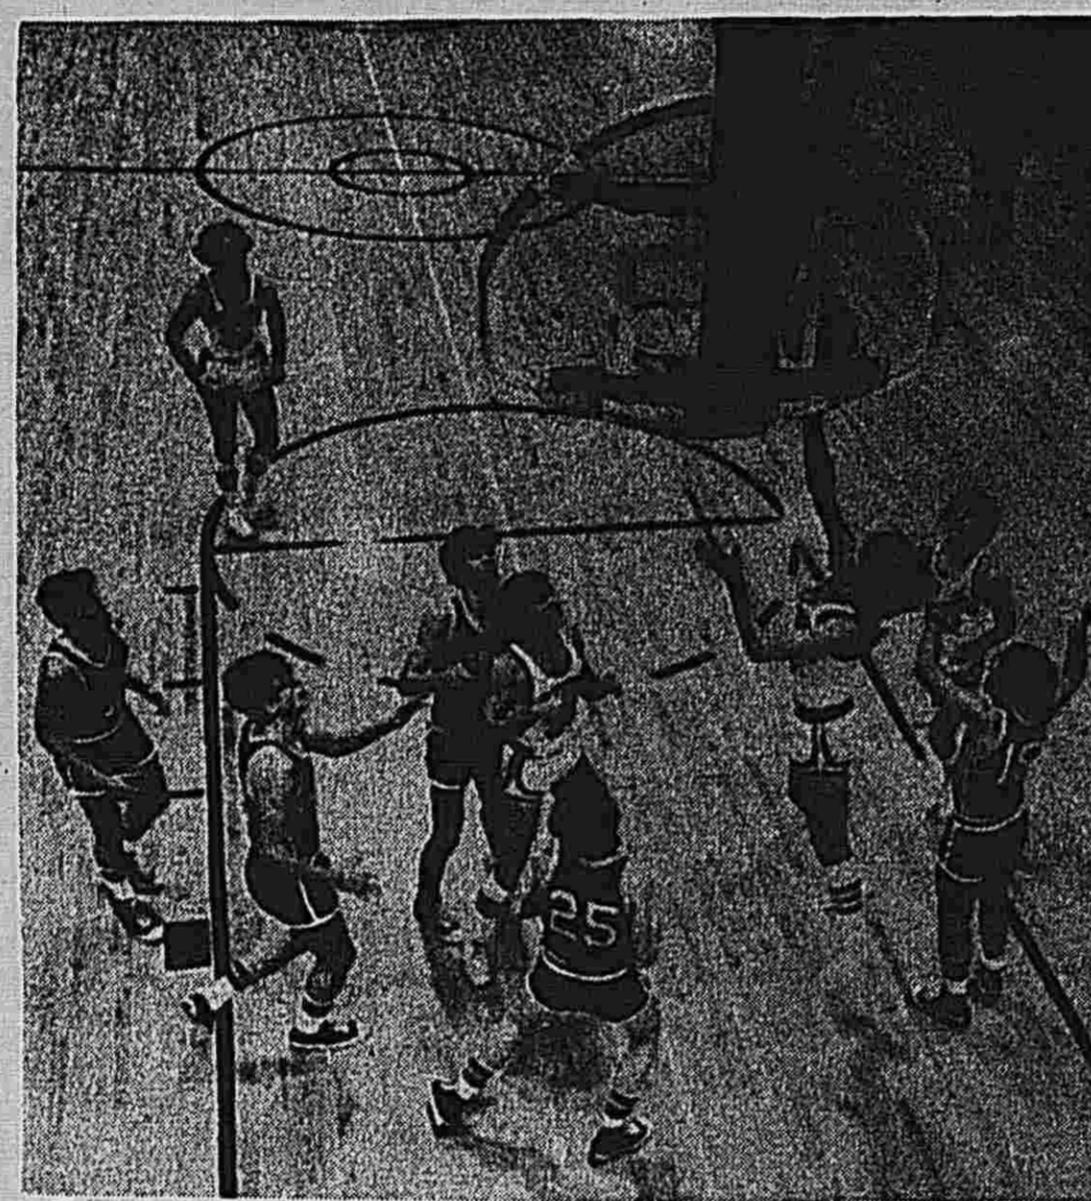

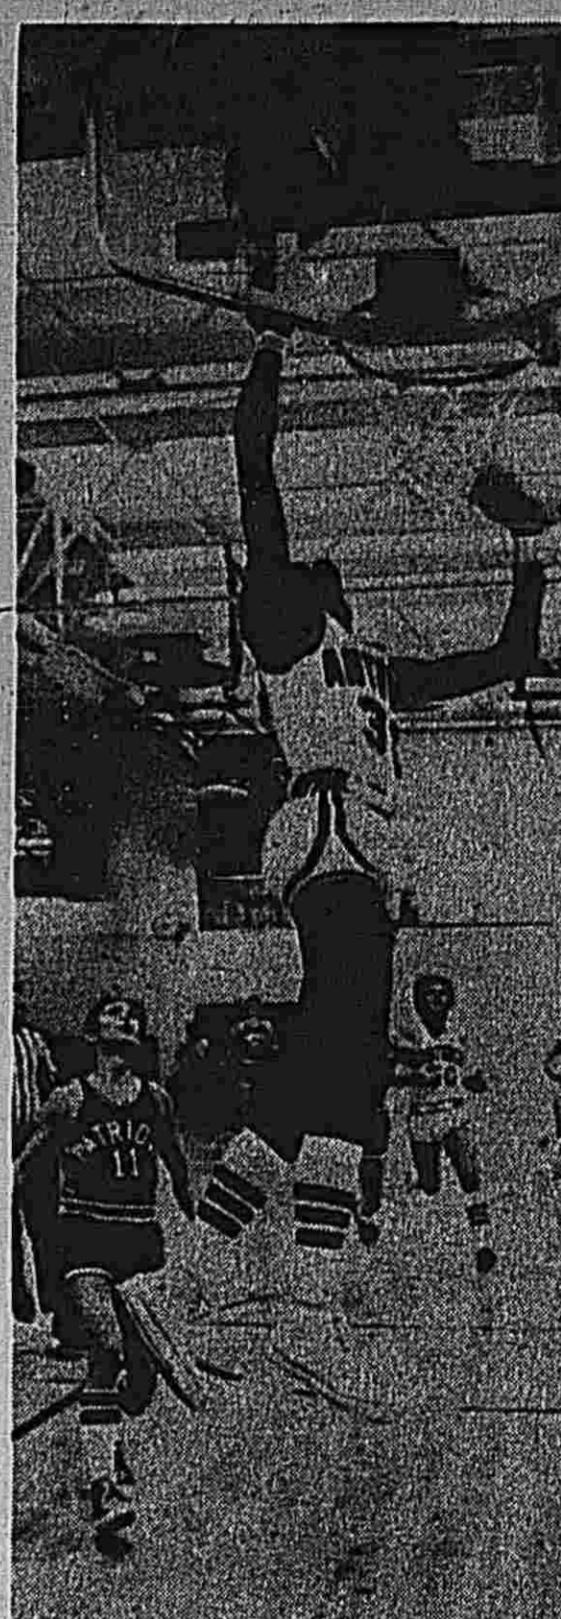

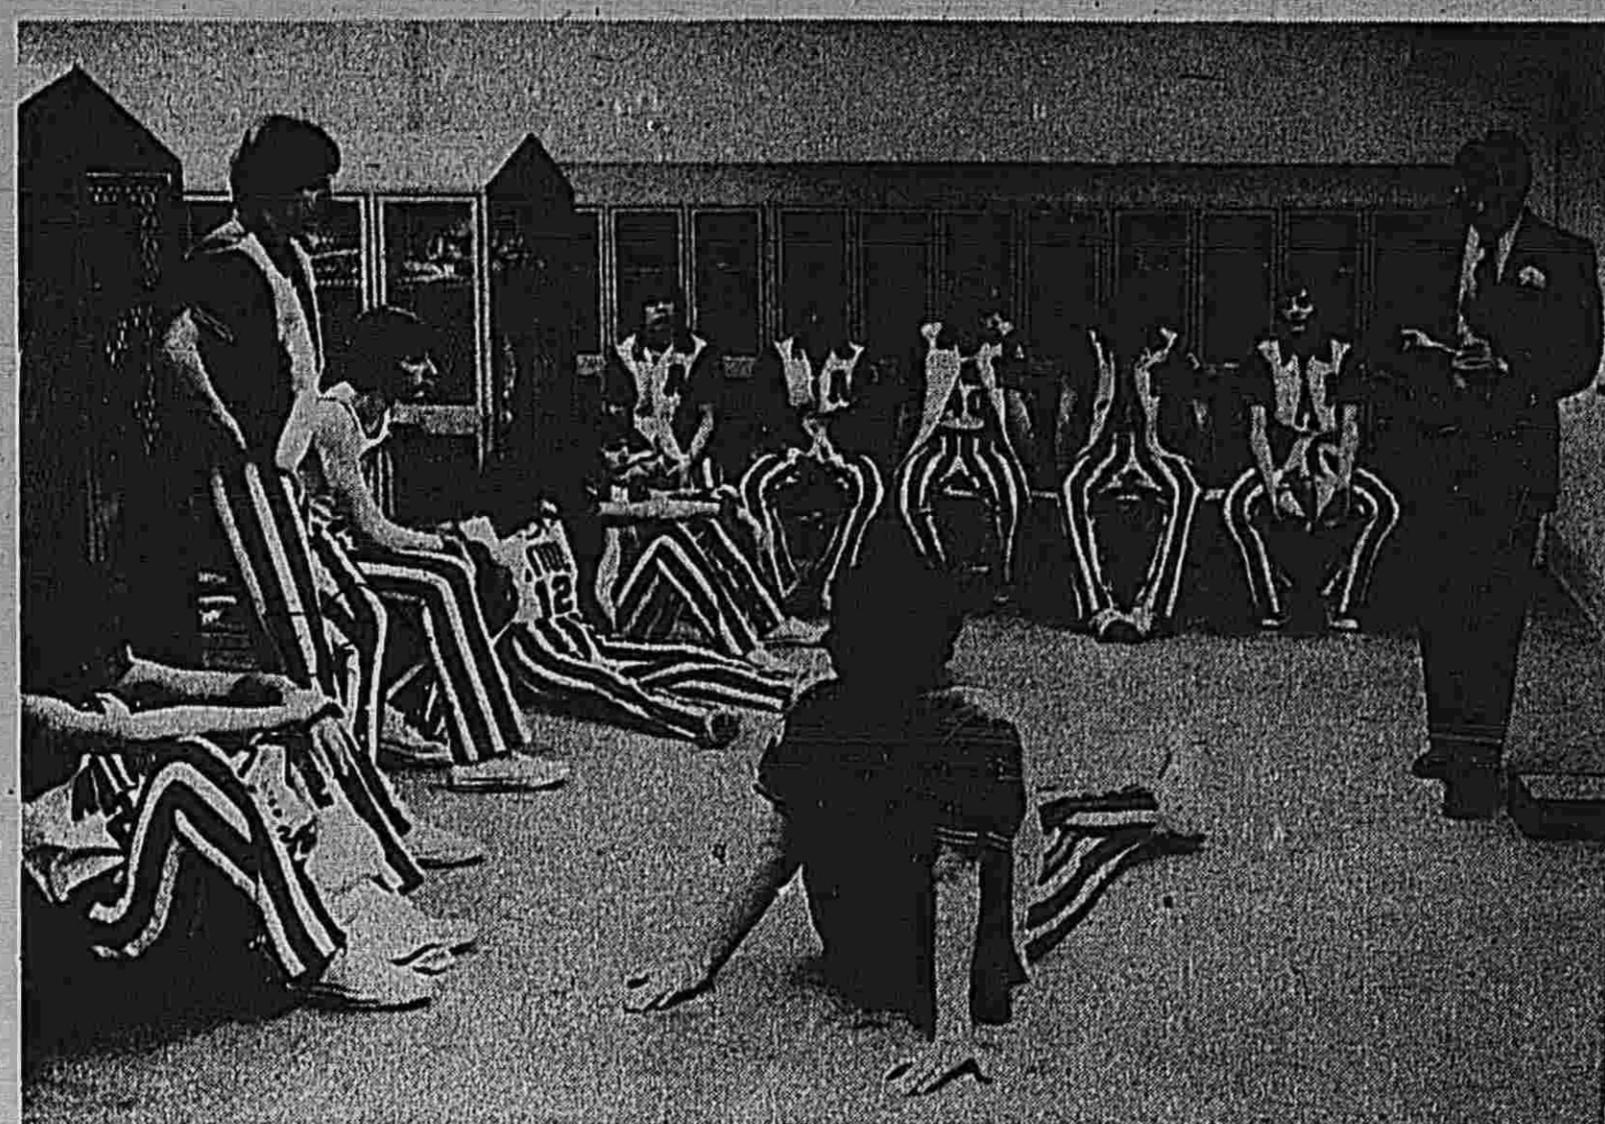

The game started out fast for the Sequoits as they opened up with an 8-2 lead, but Stevenson came back to close the lead to 10-6, with 4:27 left in the quarter. At this point, the Sequoits full court press was very effective, as they outscored Stevenson 11-0 in the last four minutes to end the quarter, leading 21-6.

The second quarter was more of the same, as the Sequoits outclassed the Stevenson ball club. During the quarter, Coach Andrews started to substitute after the Sequoits lead was extended to 40-14 midway through the period.

At the start of the third quarter, the starters took over again. They began the quarter by outscoring Stevenson 20 to 8 before they left the game for the subs to finish out, the score at this point was 64-31. The rest of the team did a very good job, as every member of the squad scored in the game. It was a finish to a fine "Parent's Night" crowd.

The victory over Stevenson was a great team effort, with good balance scoring, four starters in double figures and each squad member contributing to the scoring and playing fine defense", stated Coach Andrews. "The team seemed relaxed, free moving and made some fine offensive moves, a pleasure to watch", added the Sequoits mentor.

The Antioch Sequoits are still leading the conference by two games over their nearest rival, Grant. Next week the Sequoits travel to Warren to take on the "Blue Devils". It should shape up as a tough game for the Sequoits Power Machine.
